Sumitomo Mitsui Construction Decides to Change Company Name Effective October 1, 2026

New Company Name: ARSOCIA CONSTRUCTION CO., LTD.

Sumitomo Mitsui Construction Co., Ltd., (SMCC) (Head Office: 2-1-6 Tsukuda, Chuo-ku, Tokyo; President: Toshio Shibata) is pleased to announce that it has decided to change its corporate name to "ARSOCIA CONSTRUCTION CO., LTD." effective October 1, 2026.

*This change is subject to the approval of partial amendments to the articles of incorporation at the ordinary general meeting of shareholders.

As a general contractor, we have consistently engaged in diverse projects to realize a safe and comfortable society, promoting high-quality construction that leads to a prosperous future. Following our integration into INFRONEER Holdings in September 2025, we have decided to change our corporate name to establish a new brand identity. This change reflects our commitment to further refining our technological expertise and engaging sincerely with society, while more clearly communicating our corporate values and the unique contributions we offer.

The new name, "ARSOCIA," is a coined word merging the Latin terms ARS (technology/skill) and SOCIA (society/partners/coexistence). It symbolizes our philosophy of advancing alongside an evolving society, powered by our diverse technological capabilities. Following the official name change on October 1, 2026, we will begin phased promotional activities to establish the new brand.

As a member of INFRONEER Holdings, we will embrace our new name while carrying forward the solid technological capabilities and sincere approach to construction cultivated throughout our history. We remain dedicated to evolving into a company that responds strongly and flexibly to the changes of the times.
